

the sum of Ten pounds unto my Brother Jonathan the sum of Ten or pounds unto my Brother James ten pounds unto my sister Ann Woodford or in the court of the said in my lifetime then unto her child by her first husband James Weaver / Ten pounds unto my Brother Robert the sum of one hundred pounds out of the sum the now stands indebted to me but in case he shall have paid me the said debt in my lifetime such one hundred pounds is not to be paid to him I also give unto my said said Brother Robert the sum of Ten pounds all the above legacies to my Brothers and Sisters to be paid first from legacy duty in equal third parts namely one third at the expiration of twelve months after my decease another third at the expiration of two years and the remaining third at the expiration of three years after my decease but no interest is to be payable on the said legacies I give and bequeath unto my said wife Mary Scrumman all and singular my household goods and furniture plate and books to be enjoyed by her for her life and I request her to divide the same amongst all my children except my said son Robert Scrumman in such shares as she may think fit as that messuage or dwellinghouse in which I now reside with the Office timber yard & garden workshops and premises thereto belonging situate in East Street in Taunton aforesaid and the messuage or dwellinghouse and also a part of the public street called East Street and also all the land and messuage situate between the two streets and the River and also in East Street aforesaid and now in the occupation of Mr. Broadbent and others all which premises are portions of inheritance part of the Manor of Taunton Deane and also all that dwelling house situate in East Street aforesaid facing the public street with the two tenements behind the same and the plot or piece of land thereto adjoining last mentioned dwelling house together with all the premises are also portions of inheritance part of the Manor of Taunton Deane and were sold by me of the William Croker and all covenants and buildings thereon I give and devise unto and to the use of my eldest son Robert Scrumman his heirs and assigns for ever subject nevertheless to the occupation and enjoyment by myself and wife Mary Scrumman during the natural life of the messuage or dwelling house lately occupied by the Wood with the Office thereto attached and to the use of that half of the garden belonging to the said premises nearest adjoining the said dwelling house with liberty for her to pass and repass through the said timber yard at her will and pleasure provided always and that hereby charge and make liable all and singular the said hereditaments and premises to and with the payment unto my said wife during her natural life if she shall so long survive my widow and not marrying with any other man of the yearly sum of sixty pounds in lieu and satisfaction of all dowry and things which she might otherwise claim in or to all or any of my lands or hereditaments the said sum of sixty pounds to be paid to my said wife quarterly by equal quarterly payments on the twenty fifth day of October the twenty fourth day of June the twenty ninth day of September and the twenty fifth day of December in every year without any deduction whatsoever on any amount of any present or future taxes or impositions the first payment to be made on or with the said day of payment as shall happen next after my decease and in case the said yearly rent charge of sixty pounds or any part thereof shall be unpaid for the space of forty one day next after any or either of the days aforesaid appointed for the payment thereof then and so often as the same shall or happen it shall be lawful for my said wife and her assigns to enter into and distrain upon the said hereditaments charged with the payment thereof and to dispose of the distress and distresses then and there